

Mindfulness quote of the week:

'You have not failed unless you have stopped trying'

Welcome back to school! I cannot believe this is our last term of this school year. I hope you all had a lovely Easter break together. We have had a fabulous week in school together!

During English we started studying Narrative poetry. Our poem is The Highwayman and today for computing the children have also studied the novel Highway Rat as they are going to use this as a stimulus to crate their own movie trailer! In PE we have moved onto athletics and the children practised sprinting and passing a baton. They also timed each other running so that next week they can try to beat their time. Within art this week, we studied the artist Michelangelo. The children compared some of his artwork and then created a page of work about him. Our learning in Spanish this week focused on verbs/actions and children learnt to talk about the things they can do such as riding a bike, cooking singing etc.

Well done to our fabulous stars of this week!

These children really made me and the rest of our class ! They are working so hard in all areas of school and giving us many reasons to smile!

Miss Jones and Miss Smith are so proud of you!

Reminders

Thursday 30th April is the lower junior times table workshop. J1, J2 and J3 parents are invited to attend. This is on straight after school.

Have a lovely weekend together! Kind regards Miss Jones & Miss Smith
